Hash Algorithms

SHA-3

sponge construction:

The rate r is a positive integer that is strictly less than the width b. The capacity c is such that r + c = b.